ATLANTA, Georgia — Karl Meyer, chief executive officer of 3PD, Inc. has been named a 2009 "Pro To Know" by Supply & Demand Chain Executive, a national publication geared to the logistics industry. The annual honor was announced in the publication's February/March 2009 issue, which hits newsstands this week.

Meyer was selected because of his last-mile company's high productive stop rate, which enables businesses to save 10 to 15 percent on redelivery costs.

According to the magazine, Pros To Know is a "listing of exceptional corporate executives... that are demonstrating leadership during the economic downturn by managing risk in the supply chain, providing competitive advantage and/or delivering value to the bottom line." Nominees come from a wide variety of manufacturing, information, consulting, logistics and other companies. And winners are chosen by the magazine's staff and advisory board.
