ATLANTA, Georgia — Inbound Logistics has named 3PD a "Top 100 Logistics Provider" for 2008.

It is 3PD's second appearance on the annual list — and the latest of several national rankings or awards it has received over the past 12 months. In December the company was named Atlanta's Logistics Company of the Year; in September it was named a "Top 50 Logistics Company" by Transport Topics; and in February it received GE's Quality Hero and QOS (Quality-of-Service) awards.

Inbound Logistics compiles its Top 100 list based on providers' service quality as well as their ability to help clients attract "business, attain visibility, reduce costs, and compete in a global economy."

"One hallmark of a Top 100 3PL is its ability to enable growth and innovation for its customers. That is what 3PD does, and why we are pleased to recognize it as a 2008 Top 100 3PL," said Inbound Logistics Editor Felecia Stratton when announcing 3PD's addition to the list.

According to Stratton, the magazine receives hundreds of nominations for the list each year. Fewer than one in three of the nominated companies made this year's cut.
